

I am worthy of great success

I am worthy of great success.

I learn more about success each day through my thoughts and actions. If I think the correct thoughts, I take the correct actions. The correct actions lead to success. I believe in this idea with all my heart.

I choose actions that make me worthy of great success.

I know what I want to accomplish in my life. I know the thoughts and actions that are necessary for me to achieve those ambitions.

Each day I choose success by managing my thoughts and behaviors.

My goals are important to me. I believe my goals are right for me. I have a clear understanding of the direction in which I want to take my life.

I maintain habits that support success.

If I find that I lack a habit I think I need, I create it.

If I have habits that make me less likely to be successful, I banish them from existence. I ensure that my habits make me worthy of great success.

Today, I choose my thoughts and actions based upon my goals. This day is dedicated to my success. I am worthy of great success, today and every day in the future.

Self-Reflection Questions:

1. What are my long-term goals for my life? What am I doing each day to attain those goals?
2. What am I failing to do each day that I know I must do if I want to be successful?
3. What are my three best and three worst habits? How can I rid myself of these three habits that keep me from success? What other habits do I need to cultivate that will support my success?
