

I have confidence in my future

I have confidence in my future.

I am confident that my future is beautiful. I know great things await me. I am ready to experience an amazing future.

I am in control of my destiny.

I decide a great deal of my future. I determine who is in my life. I pick my career and goals. I can choose the life I want to live and develop habits that enable me to reach my goals.

I avoid worrying about the future.

I focus on the present, knowing that what I do right now is my greatest priority. When I am focused on the present moment, my mind ceases to think of regrets from the past or what might happen in the future.

I know the universe has a plan for me. I am ready to follow it. I am sure of myself and my dreams.

I know what I need to do to have the future of my dreams. I understand how to get what I want. I surround myself with a loving support group who can help me overcome challenges and reach my goals.

I have confidence in my abilities, talents, and goals. I have the determination to take action to succeed. My future is filled with love, hope, and abundance.

Today, I know my future is bright. I have confidence in what is ahead of me.
