

My career is on the right path for me

My career is on the right path for me.

I trust that I am heading in the right direction with my life.

My future looks bright and hopeful. I am thankful for my blessings in all parts of my life, including my career. My career is on the right path for me.

I have confidence that I can accomplish my goals. Although temporary setbacks are a normal part of this process, I trust that I can get past them.

Any challenges that come my way only serve to make me stronger. Then, future challenges feel less daunting, and I am certain in my ability to overcome them.

I am thankful for the many experiences that contribute to my career. I learn from each and every one, even if a situation seems less than positive at the time.

I learn from both my achievements and mistakes. Because of this, I seek out learning situations whenever I can, and know that they are part of making my career what I want it to be.

Today, I believe that my career dreams are attainable.

I set small goals and celebrate when I achieve them. From past experiences, I know that setbacks are only temporary before I begin moving forward again. My career is on the right path for me.

Self-Reflection Questions:

1. What can I do today to benefit my career?
2. Are there any challenging decisions about my career that I have been hesitant to face?
3. What is the best possible outcome if I choose to face them?