Prayer of Adoration

Rev. Dr. Douglass Key

(Congregation, please remain seated during the reading of the Lessons.)

First Lesson: The Good News of Deliverance—Isaiah 61:1-3

The spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord has anointed me; he has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and release to the prisoners; to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; to provide for those who mourn in Zion—to give them a garland instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of a faint spirit.

*THOSE WHO ARE ABLE, PLEASE STAND

Carol (congregation and choir)

Love Divine, All Loves Excelling/ Come, Thou Long Expected Jesus

HYFRYDOL

1. Love divine, all loves excelling, Joy of heaven to earth come down, fix in us thy humble dwelling; all thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, thou art all compassion; pure, unbounded love thou art;
visit us with thy salvation; enter every trembling heart. (Interlude)
2. Come, thou long expected Jesus, born to set thy people free; from our fears and sins release us; let us find our rest in thee.
Israel's strength and consolation, hope of all the earth thou art;
dear desire of every nation, joy of every longing heart.
3. Born thy people to deliver, born ad child and yet a king;
born to reign in us forever, now thy gracious kingdom bring.
By thine own eternal Spirit rule in all our hearts alone; by thine all sufficient merit raise us to thy glorious throne.

Second Lesson: The Birth of Jesus—Luke 2:1-7

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and the family of David. He went to registered with Mary, to whom, he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

Jesus Child

John Rutter

Have you heard the story that they're telling 'bout Bethlehem, Have you heard the story of the Jesus Child? How he came from heaven and was born in a manger bed? Mary was his virgin mother pure and mild. Sing alleluia, brothers, sing alleluia, sisters, Worship the Jesus Child and praise his mother mild. Glory to God on high the angel hosts above are singing Listen to the story of the Jesus Child. Have you heard the story of the poor humble shepherd men, Sitting on a hillside with their flock at night? Suddenly the angel tells them: "Hurry to Bethlehem; go and find the Jesus child, the world's new light." Jesus child, lying at Bethlehem, sleeping safe at Mary's knee, Save my soul and bring me to paradise, Let me join the angels singing glory to thee. Have you heard the story of the kings from the orient, Following the star that's shining over his head? Offering their precious gifts of gold, myrrh and frankincense, Kneeling with the ox and ass before his bed? Brothers, let us celebrate the birth of the Jesus child, Sisters, come and welcome him, the newborn King; Praise the Lord who sent him down from heaven at Christmas time; Young and old and rich and poor, his praises sing. Sing alleluia, brothers, sing alleluia, sisters, Worship the Jesus Child and praise his mother mild. Glory to God on high the angel hosts above are singing,
Listen to the story of the Jesus Child.

Prayers of the People and Lord's Prayer

Rev. Nicholas P. Demuynck

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Third Lesson: The Shepherds and the Angels—Luke 2:8-16

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see- I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord, This will be a sign for you: You will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!” When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.” So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger.

Carol #121 (congregation-remain seated)

O Little Town of Bethlehem

ST. LOUIS

1. O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie! Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by. Yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting light; t he hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.
2. For Christ is born of Mary and, gathered all above, while mortals sleep, the angels keep their watch of wondering love. O morning stars, together proclaim the holy birth, and praises sing to God the king, and peace to all on earth.
4. O holy child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray; cast out our sin and enter in; be born in us today. We hear the Christmas angels the great glad tidings tell; O come to us; abide with us, our Lord Emmanuel.

Fourth Lesson: The Ministry of Reconciliation—2 Corinthians 5:18-21

All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us. So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

A Child, My Choice

Richard Nance

Let folly praise that fancy loves, I praise and love that wondrous Child Whose heart no thought, whose tongue no word, whose hand no deed defiled. I praise Him most, I love Him best, all praise and love is His; While Him I love, in Him I live, and cannot live amiss. Love's sweetest mark, laud's highest theme, man's desired light, To love Him life, to leave Him death, to live in Him delight. He mine by gift, I His by debt, thus each to other due; First friend He was, best friend He is, all times will try Him true. Though young, yet wise; though small, yet strong, though man, yet God He is: As wise, He knows; as strong He can as God, He loves to bless. His knowledge rules, His strength defends, His love doth cherish all: His birth our joy, His life our light, His death our end of thrall. Alas! He weeps, He sighs, He moans, yet do His holy angels sing; Out of His tears, His sighs and throbs, doth but a joyful spring. Almighty Babe, whose tender arms can force all foes to fly, Correct my faults, protect my life, direct when I die!

Fifth Lesson: A Living Hope—1 Peter 1:3-9

Blessed be the God and father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith—being more precious than gold that through perishable, is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. Although you have not seen him. You love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Jesus, What a Wonderful Child

Rollo Dillworth

Jesus, oh, what a Wonderful Child. Jesus, so holy, meek and mild. New life, new hope, new joy He brings. Listen to the angels sing: “Glory to the newborn King!” He was herald’d by the angels, yes, born in a lowly manger. God chose the virgin Mary as His mother, and Joseph as His earthly father. Three wise men trav’lin from afar, they guided by that shinin’ star to see King Jesus where He lay in a manger full of hay. Some traveled north, some traveled south to see this wonderful Child. Some traveled east, some traveled west to see this wonderful Child.

Affirmation of Faith—from Colossians 1:15-20

Rev. Dr. Carol J. Byrd

Jesus Christ is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible. All things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn of the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross. Amen

Carol of Dedication #134 (congregation)

Joy to the World

ANTIOCH

1. Joy to the world, the Lord is come! Let earth receive her king; let every heart prepare him room, and heaven and nature sing, and heaven and nature sing, and heaven, and heaven and nature sing.
2. Joy to the earth, the Savior reigns! Let all their songs employ, while fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains repeat the sounding joy, repeat the sounding joy, repeat, repeat the sounding joy.
4. He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove the glories of his righteousness and wonders of his love, and wonders of his love, and wonders, wonders of his love.
