

Helpful Resources

Graduate Student Association: The GSA Office can help guide students through their rights and potential policy actions with confidential advising appointments. The GSA can also direct students to other helpful resources available on campus, advocate for students, and can accompany students to meetings with university administration as a support. Located in MC 2029. Students can also contact the GSA through here: <https://uwaterloo.ca/graduate-student-association/contact-us> or 519-888-4567 ext. 36015

AccessAbility Services: Pushes for equitable opportunity for students with disabilities or illness. This office aids in creating individualized academic accommodation plans. Located in Needles Hall North (access@uwaterloo.ca 519-888-4567 ext. 35082).

Conflict Management and Human Rights Office: Offers resolution support program (gives guidance to those thinking about taking action under a UW policy) and a conflict intervention program (members work directly with party members to try to mediate/resolve the issue at hand). Located in Commissary building (hreigen@uwaterloo.ca 519-888-4567 ext. 40439).

Office of Graduate Studies and Postdoctoral Affairs: Provides guidance on graduate academics, awards and funding, registration and course enrolment, and professional skill building (e.g. GRADtalks). Located in Needles Hall. Students can also contact the GSPA directly through here: <https://uwaterloo.ca/graduate-studies-postdoctoral-affairs/about/contact-us>
