WAIVER OF MEDICAL EVALUATION REQUIREMENTS

I am 18 years old or older. I have been advised by a representative of Key Hearing Aids that the Food and Drug Administration has determined that my best health interests would be served if I were to have a medical evaluation by a licensed physician (preferably one who specializes in diseases of the ear) prior to a hearing aid evaluation and/or purchase of a hearing aid. The representative at Key Hearing Aids has fully and clearly informed me of the value of such medical examination. After such explanation, I do not wish a medical evaluation.

Acknowledgment of Review of Notice of Privacy Practices

You may refuse to sign this acknowledgment.

Purpose: This form is used to obtain acknowledgment of review/receipt of Key Hearing Aids' "Notice of Privacy Practices" or to document our good faith effort to obtain that acknowledgment.

I understand that the client's health information is private and confidential. I understand that Key Hearing Aids works very hard to protect the client's privacy and preserve the confidentiality of the client's personal health information. Key Hearing Aids displays a copy of their "Notice of Privacy Practices" at their lobby.

I understand that Key Hearing Aids may use and disclose the client's personal health information to help provide health care to the client, to handle billing, insurance, payment and collection, and to take care of other health care operations. In general, there will be no other uses and disclosures of this information unless I permit it. I understand that there may be situations where Key Hearing Aids is required by federal, state, or local law to release this information without my permission. One example would be in response to a warrant, summons, court order, subpoena or similar legal process.

Key Hearing Aids has a detailed document called the "Notice of Privacy Practices". It contains more information about the policies and practices protecting the client's privacy including other potential disclosures and uses of client's health information. I understand that I can receive a copy of this document at any time of my choosing. I have also been informed that the most current copy of the "Notice of Privacy Practices" document is also available on their website at www.keyhearingaids.com. One example would be disclosure of health information for research purposes. I understand that I have the right to read the "Notice of Privacy Practices" before signing this Acknowledgment.

Key Hearing Aids may update this Acknowledgment and "Notice of Privacy Practices" at any time. If I ask, Key Hearing Aids will provide me with the most current "Notice of Privacy Practices". Within this "Notice of Privacy Practices" is contained a complete description of my privacy/confidentiality rights. These rights include, but are not limited to, access to my medical records; restrictions on certain uses; receiving an accounting of disclosures as required by law; and requesting communication be it by specified methods of communications or alternative locations.

Key Hearing Aids has established procedures that help them meet their obligations to clients. These procedures may include other signature requirements, written acknowledgments, and authorizations; reasonable time frames for requesting information; charges for copies and non-routine information needs; etc. I will assist Key Hearing Aids by following these procedures if I choose to exercise any of my rights described in the "Notice of Privacy Practices". By signing this form, I am acknowledging that Key Hearing Aids has made their "Notice of Privacy Practices" available to me for review and that they have offered me a personal copy.

Check if client is not the signatory.
