

CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

Definitions

1. The following terms have these meanings in this Policy:
 - a) "Confidential Information" – Personal information of Representatives including but not limited to home address, email address, personal phone numbers, date of birth, financial information, medical information, and background check information. Additionally, Confidential Information also covers information considered to be intellectual property of Racquetball Canada such as data, proprietary information, business information, and trade secrets;
 - b) "Representative" – All individuals employed by, or engaged in activities on behalf of, Racquetball Canada. Representatives include, but are not limited to, staff, administrators, Directors and Officers of Racquetball Canada, committee members, and volunteers;
 - c) "Members" – Individuals employed by, or engaged in activities with, Racquetball Canada including, but not limited to, registered participants, athletes, coaches, officials, volunteers, managers, administrators, committee members, and Directors and Officers of Racquetball Canada.

Purpose

2. The purpose of this Policy is to ensure the protection of Confidential Information that is proprietary to Racquetball Canada.

Scope and Application

3. This policy applies to all Members and Representatives of Racquetball Canada.
4. Confidential Information does not include the following: name, title, business address, work telephone number, or any other information widely available or in the public domain.
5. Members voluntarily publishing or consenting to the publication of Confidential Information in a public forum (such as the listing of an email address on a website) forfeit the expectation of confidentiality for that Confidential Information for as long as it is available publicly.

Responsibilities

6. Representatives and Members will not, either during the period of their involvement/employment with Racquetball Canada or any time thereafter, disclose, publish, communicate, or divulge to any person or organization any Confidential Information acquired during their period of involvement/employment, unless expressly authorized to do so.

7. Representatives and Members will not use, reproduce, or distribute Confidential Information without the express written consent of Racquetball Canada.
8. All documents and written materials relating to Confidential Information will remain the property of Racquetball Canada and, upon cessation of involvement/employment with Racquetball Canada, for any reason, or upon request of Racquetball Canada, Representatives will immediately return all written or tangible Confidential Information, as well as copies and reproductions, and any other media containing Confidential Information.

Intellectual Property

9. Copyright and any other intellectual property rights for all written material (including material in electronic format or posted on a website) and other works produced in connection with employment or involvement with Racquetball Canada will be owned solely by Racquetball Canada, which shall have the right to use, reproduce, or distribute such material and works, in whole or in part, for any purpose it wishes. Racquetball Canada may grant permission for others to use its intellectual property.

Enforcement

10. A breach of any provision in this Policy may be subject to legal recourse, termination of the employment or volunteer position, suspension or expulsion from membership, or sanctions pursuant to Racquetball Canada's Discipline and Complaints Policy.
