As the body responsible for administering Canada's Anti-Doping Program (CADP), Canadian Center for Ethics in Sport (CCES) devotes a significant portion of its resources to promoting doping-free sport. The CADP protects athletes' right to fair and ethical competition and helps ensure the integrity of amateur sport. Through association membership, all athletes of Racquetball Ontario (RO) are bound by Racquetball Canada's anti-doping policy and any resulting sanctions.

In accordance with their policy, if you are sanctioned by virtue of the CADP you will be ineligible to participate in any role and in any competition or activity organized, convened, held or sanctioned by Racquetball Canada or its Member associations (including Racquetball Ontario) as per the penalties imposed. We monitor our membership in coordination with Racquetball Canada to ensure compliance with Canada's Anti-Doping Program.

At all times, Ontario-based athletes who compete in national level events held in Ontario, either through a provincial sport organization (i.e., Racquetball Ontario) partnership with or on behalf of the national sport organization (i.e., Racquetball Canada), are bound by the national sport organization's anti-doping policy.
