of you to change your life for the better and you have to change your life for the better. I'm glad you called. In the spirit of the season, I'd like to share with you a story that happened this past weekend. Please take a few minutes to listen to this inspiring testimony of real life. As they say, A young Christian woman was on her way to church, but she noticed a homeless person sleeping on the sidewalk. She was completely taken aback and wanted to help him. Not wanting to disturb him, she moved to the side of the road and gently tapped his hand to wake him up. No reply. She touched his shoulder and even shook his leg, to no avail. Knowing that he had been trying to get to church, she moved closer to him and asked if he had just gone to church and he was waiting for the bus. He said no, he was waiting for a ride. She told him her name and that she was a Christian who needed to go to church. She prayed for him and asked God to help him get to his meeting. He said, "I will wait for you after I get on the bus." She told him that was fine and sat down next to him. As she was listening to some music on her I-pod, this young man began to snore loudly! She turned off her music, grabbed him by the back of his head and threw him over her shoulder like a sack of potatoes! Returning to her church, she went to the office and told the secretary that she needed to speak with the Pastor. She said, "I was just in church and I saw this homeless person sleeping on the sidewalk. It looked like he hadn't had a good meal in days. I was thinking of helping him and I woke him up and this is what he did to me!" The secretary said, "You did the right thing, young lady. We are called to serve. If you ever need help, please come back!" She thanked the secretary and returned to her life of service to our brothers and sisters. As we celebrate the birth of our Savior, it's the greatest gift that has ever been given to man - the gift of life. Jesus came down to us to save us from our sin. Today, when we hear Christmas music, or sometimes even church hymns, we think of this Savior
